

2018 Branson Terry Music Award Winners

Entertainer of the Year – Doug Gabriel (Pierce Arrow Theatre)

Show of the Year – The Haygoods (Clay Cooper Theatre)

Male Vocalist of the Year – Jeff Brandt (Hamner's Unbelievable Variety)

Female Vocalist of the Year – Nadia Cole (AYO - Voices of Glory)

Band of the Year – Clay Cooper's Country Express Band (Clay Cooper Theater)

Comedian of the Year – Matt Gumm (Clay Cooper Theatre)

Matinee Show of the Year - #1 Hits of the 60s (Clay Cooper Theatre)

Morning Show of the Year – Down Home Country (Grand Country Music Hall)

Production Show of the Year – Shepherd of the Hills Drama (Shepherd of the Hills Complex)

Gospel Show of the Year – Oh Happy Day! Goin' Back to Gospel (Hughes Brothers Theatre)

Vocal Duo of the Year – Brandon and Megan Mabe (Branson Famous Theatre)

Vocal Group of the Year – Hughes Brothers (Hughes Brothers Theatre)

Bass Player of the Year – Larry Allred (Grand Country Music Hall)

Lead Player of the Year – Chad Cathell (Grand Country Music Hall)

Fiddle Player of the Year – Katie Petersen (iMax Lil Opry Theatre)

Tribute Show of the Year – Legends in Concert (American Bandstand Theatre)

Dinner Show of the Year – Absolutely Country/Definitely Gospel (Uptown Café)

Steel Player of the Year – Dr. Scott Kwapiszeski (Raiding the Country Vault)

Keyboard Player of the Year – Michael W. Davis (Grand Country Music Hall)

Drummer of the Year – Pete Generous (Raiding the Country Vault)

Little Big Show of the Year – The Petersens (iMax Lil Opry Theatre)

Instrumentalist of the Year – Michael T. Hersmeyer (Heartland Country)

Living Legend Award – Jim Stafford

Lifetime Achievement Award – Billy Yates

Humanitarian Award – Roy Morris

Pioneer Award – Terry Wayne Sanders

The Mayors Award – Captain Chris Martin